

LTC Matthew B. Chitty

LTC Matt Chitty currently serves as the Commander, 3rd Battalion, 11th Infantry Regiment (OCS).

LTC Chitty is originally from Watertown, New York and received his commission as an Armor officer from North Georgia College in 2000. Upon completion of the Armor Officer Basic Course, he reported to his first assignment at 1st Battalion, 77th Armor Regiment where he served as a Tank Platoon Leader, Support Platoon Leader, and Tank Company Executive Officer.

Following completion of the Armor Officer Career Course in 2004, LTC Chitty served as an Operation Officer with Headquarters, III Corps. In 2005 he was assigned to 3rd Heavy Brigade Combat Team, 1st Cavalry Division as the Brigade Assistant S-3 (Plans). From 2006-2008 LTC Chitty commanded D Company, 3-8 Cavalry and Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 3-8 Cavalry. From 2008-2010 LTC Chitty again served as the Brigade Assistant S-3 (Plans) for 3rd Heavy Brigade Combat Team, 1st Cavalry Division.

Following graduation of Air Command and Staff College in 2011, LTC Chitty was assigned to the 3rd Infantry Division, Ft. Stewart, GA where he served as an Assistant G3 Operations Officer, the Operations Officer for 2nd Battalion, 7th Infantry Regiment, and the Operations Officer for the 1st Armored Brigade Combat Team. LTC Chitty served as the Executive Officer, J6 Directorate, Headquarters, US Africa Command from June 2014 to May 2017.

LTC Chitty deployed multiple times to Kosovo, Iraq, and Afghanistan and has multiple awards and decorations.